Kalyan Bharti Trust

Kalyan Bharti Trust was established by 22 like-minded industrialists with a zeal to serve the country, particularly the State of West Bengal. It is a philanthropic venture to promote and foster the cause of education. The Heritage School and Heritage Institute of Technology were established in 2001, followed by the setting up of the Management Education Centre under the banner of Heritage Institute of Technology in 2003 (renamed Heritage Business School in 2013), The Heritage Academy in 2007, Heritage Law College in 2015 and the Heritage College in 2016. The Trust also runs 'Suryakiran' - a free evening school and 'Kalyani' - a charitable health-care centre for weaker sections of the society as a part of its societal commitments. The future plan includes establishment of a Medical College and a Private University.

The Heritage College

The Heritage College is affiliated to the University of Calcutta, West Bengal and it started its journey on August 3, 2016 with six UG Honours programmes in English, Commerce, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry and Economics.

The college has a pool of highly qualified and experienced members of faculty, well known in their respective fields of education. The College inculcates a very high standard of path-breaking learning process and a go-getter attitude among the students, to strive for excellence and make them understand and imbibe honesty and competence. In a caring and positive environment, The Heritage College guides the students to set their standard of excellence in academic work as well as the areas of physical, cultural and social development, ensuring civic and human values.
